"Melissa delivered a fantastic keynote at our annual Global Product Forum with attendees representing North America, South America, Asia, and Europe. She was able to make concepts about how the brain works and factors that influence company culture relevant to a diverse global audience. More importantly, her energy and passion are simply infectious!"

I highly recommend Melissa to anyone looking for a dynamic speaker to create an exceptional attendee experience."

"Melissa's presentations are over the top. After receiving outstanding feedback from our attendees at the Florida Restaurant & Lodging Marketing & Operations Summit, we brought her back to present five consecutive years.

Your audience will love her!
She is intelligent, personable and fun!"
